Developed by AcroVista Software, GovernMail is the most sophisticated and comprehensive list of representatives worldwide. Users can view and email home pages from world leaders. GovernMail includes world contacts for Members of the House and Senate from 169 countries as well as their phone numbers, addresses, and contact information. From the world leaders list, users can email any of the representatives in a country or group of countries. There are also sections for government websites such as the US government and government sites from all over the world. Users can browse these and email the website administrator about a particular country they wish to visit. Personal contacts can be imported and exported from GovernMail in various formats and exported to the address book of other popular address books such as Windows Explorer, Outlook Express, and Outlook. Government contacts can be exported to an Excel spreadsheet or as a text document. Text contacts can be exported to a text file or used in other software applications. (Note: GovernMail is currently the only software application designed to work with the AcroVista Software website. New versions of GovernMail will be developed and supported for use with other websites.)
